

Clinical Nurse Supervisor III - Venice Family Clinic

Overview

You can make a difference in people's lives every day. When you join UCLA Health, you'll be working at an institution that provides leading-edge care to the people of L.A. and throughout the world. We provide our team members with the environment and support to do amazing work, because each and every one of them plays a vital role in our commitment to care.

Responsibilities

Venice Family Clinic is a nonprofit community health center celebrating 50 years of delivering quality primary care to people in need. We provide vital and comprehensive health care services to nearly 28,000 people each year, regardless of their income, insurance or immigration status. Our history is rooted in Venice, but our footprint, impact, and ambitions are more expansive than ever. Visit venicefamilyclinic.org to learn more about us.

As part of the health care team in a federally qualified health center and community primary healthcare clinic, supervise certified medical assistants, volunteer clinic assistants, Licensed Vocational Nurses and Registered Nurses. Provide primary care nursing services to the low-income and homeless of the Venice and Santa Monica communities.
