Video visits are great when seeing us in person isn't easy

Schedule a visit during work breaks

Taking off work can put you in a tough spot. See your provider during work and lunch breaks.

Show your doctor something at home

Some things are hard to explain over the phone, and easier to show over video.

Invite a family member to join

Other people can join your video visit and help translate or ask more questions.

Skip the stress of traveling to the clinic

Video visits means you don't have to deal with parking, traffic, public transit, or paying for gas.

Avoid being around other sick people

Stay home and limit your exposure to colds, the flu, COVID and other germs.

We are happy to help you prepare for your video visit. For more information, call 000-000-0000.
