

The candidate is responsible for Quality Improvement and Assurance in all 3 clinic locations. and is to :

- Support and track the health system goals to provide quality health care to all our patients
- Monitor and maintain health plan data integrity
- Assist in the delivery of educational programs for providers and office staff
- Insure compliance with credentialing
- Help preparing and following up with all required audits.

Educational, Knowledge and Experience:

- Active LPN/RN License or higher credentials required
- Minimum of 2 years of experience in QI /QA within health industry
- Knowledge of basic requirements and principles related to FQHC and HRSA
- Familiarity with Electronic Health Record Systems
- Proficiency with Microsoft Excel and Word and PowerPoint
- Strong multi-tasking abilities

Southern California Medical Center is a growing community based health service provider with a competitive compensation and benefit package.