

Job Posting

Title: Behavioral Health Clinician (MSW - ACSW)

Base Salary Range: $74,000 - $84,000 plus benefits

FTE: Full-time, Exempt

Our Mission: The Mission of South Central Family Health Center is to improve the quality of life for the diverse community of inner - city Los Angeles by providing affordable and comprehensive health care and education in a welcoming and multicultural environment. To lead the way in health care in South Los Angeles, as the premier provider and employer of choice offering comprehensive, high quality, affordable, efficient and culturally responsive services.

General Summary: The Behavioral Health Clinician is responsible for providing a wide variety of individual, family, and group therapy; including but not limited to clinical assessment, treatment planning, collateral, crisis intervention, and advocacy services to families, children, and other clients in accordance with their specific therapeutic needs. The Clinician has demonstrated expertise in addressing trauma and promoting the recovery of children and adolescents with serious emotional disturbance (SED), adults with serious mental illness (SMI), and individuals with Co-Occurring Disorders (COD).

- Develops and coordinates a clinical treatment program for the diagnosis, treatment, or referral.
- Counsel's individuals, groups, families, or communities.
- Facilitates group therapy sessions and involves client and/or family in treatment planning.
- Provides a multi-disciplinary approach to treatment plan coordinating with other medical staff.
- Continually assess the needs and symptoms of clients and families formulating psychosocial diagnosis, gathering history, and determining the most appropriate method(s) of providing treatment/evidence-based practice.
- Meet Agency requirements regarding billing for reimbursable services.
- Provide or receive weekly clinical supervision.
- Works with primary care team to treat and manage patients with chronic emotional and /or health problems effectively and efficiently.
- Review and maintain audit ready standards and peer audit.
- Serves as liaisons between students, homes, schools, family services, child guidance clinics, courts, protective services, doctors, and other contacts to help children who face problems, such as disabilities, abuse, or poverty.
- Maintains case history records and prepares reports.
- Counsel's parents with child rearing problems
- Assesses for and assist in preventing relapse or morbidity in conditions that tend to recur over time
- Improve clinical outcome with high prevalence mental disorders.

Qualifications Licensure and Certifications:

- Master's Degree in Social Work, Marriage Family Therapy, or Psychology from an accredited university or College
- Current BLS Certification required
- Must have minimum 2 years of independent counseling experience required.

- Valid licensure or associate level license, in respective field

Job Posting

- Current California Driver's License and Automobile Liability Insurance
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and organizational skills
- Carries out and follows all SCFHC procedures
- Bilingual and Bi-literate Spanish/English preferred

Top benefits or perks: As a team member at South Central Family Health Center, you'll enjoy competitive wages and generous benefits:

- Benefits: Health care, dental, life insurance
- 403 (b) Retirement plan
- Education Reimbursement
- Career development: Entry-level employees have opportunities to work in management, HR or other areas of the company.

Contact/application information:

To apply please visit South Central Family Health Center's website at:

<https://recruiting.paylocity.com/recruiting/jobs/All/325da02f-904e-426b-ab73-f734fa9906c9/South-Central-Family-Health-Cent>